Sabbatical Leave Report
Parkland College, Board Of Trustees
April 20, 1999

Completed Goals

1. Sabbatical leave allowed me to establish the first part of residency at Illinois State University

2. Sabbatical leave provided me the time to conduct research on the link between the following:

- a. Faculty Evaluation; and
- b. Student Retention

3. Sabbatical leave allowed me to attend several conferences as an active participant.

- a. Mid-West Research Association (Chicago, IL. October 1998).
- b. The Consortium For Community College Development Annual Faculty Development Institute (Ann Arbor Michigan. November, 1998)
- c. Consortium For The Study Of Community Colleges (AACCC Conference. Nashville Tennessee. April, 1999).

4. Sabbatical leave provided me the time to publish one article, and start the process of editing another.

- a. "Faculty Evaluations: Approaches that work" will appear in the Summer issue of Community College Review.
- b. I have been asked by the staff at ERIC (Educational Resource and Information Center) to edit a volume of New Directions in Community Colleges.
